Abraham and Isaac: Genesis 12-25

Abram's Journeys in Canaan

Terah (lived 205 years)

Abram (2166-1991)

God's First Promise to Abram

God promises to make Abram into a great nation and that he will bless him and make his name great. God tells Abram to leave, so Abram leaves Haran taking with him his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, and all of his possessions and servants (c. 2091 bc).

* Abram's father, Terah, plans to move his family from Ur to Canaan. Settles in Haran (midway).

God promises Abram his descendants will be as numerous as the stars.

God's Second Promise to Abram

Once in Canaan, God promises the land to Abram's offspring. Abram builds an altar to the LORD in Shechem and again near Bethel.

▲ A famine causes Abram to move to Egypt where he lies to Pharaoh saying that his wife, Sarai, is his sister.

▲ Abram leaves Egypt and builds another altar near Bethel.

God's Third Promise to Abram

Abram and his nephew Lot separate. Lot journeys east into the plain of Jordan and settles in Sodom. Abram moves to Hebron and builds another altar to the LORD. God promises the land of Canaan to Abram's offspring.

* Nine kings go to war. The victors capture Abram. Abram pursues them and rescues Lot. Melchizedek, King of Salem and priest of God Most High, brings Abram bread and wine.

◆ God's Fifth Promise to Abram

God reaffirms the covenant he made with Abram, changes Abram's name to Abraham, and Sarai's name to Sarah. God gives Abraham the sign of circumcision which is the mark of God's everlasting covenant (c. 2067 bc).

◆ God's Sixth Promise to Abraham

Three visitors remind Abraham that Sarah would bear him a son and he is to name him Isaac. Sarah laughs at this because she is so old. God promises them that all nations would be blessed through them and kings will be among their descendants (c. 2067 bc). Isaac born (c. 2066 bc)

* God tells Abraham he will destroy the city of Sodom. Abraham asks God to spare Sodom. God agrees if Abraham can find ten righteous people (c. 2067 bc).

* God destroys Sodom and Gomorrah but rescues Lot and his family. Lot's wife turns into a pillar of salt because she looks back at the city. They escape to the hills and Lot's daughters sin (c. 2067 bc).

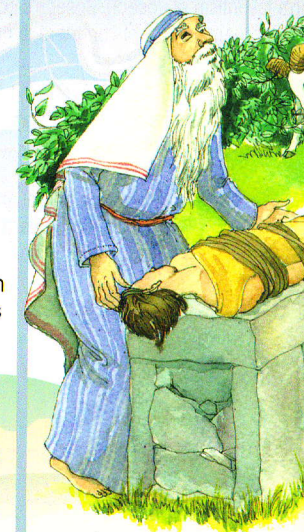

▲ Abraham travels to Gerar where he tells King Abimelech that his wife Sarah is his sister.

* Sarah requests that Abraham send Hagar and Ishmael away so that Isaac will not have to share his inheritance with Ishmael.

* God tells Abraham to send Hagar and Ishmael away. God provides for them and promises to make Ishmael into a great nation.

* Ishmael grows up in the wilderness of Paran, marries an Egyptian woman, and becomes an expert archer.

* Abraham and Abimelech, the king of Gerar, swear an oath of peace beside a well called Beer-sheba.

◆ God's Third Promise to Jacob

On the way to Egypt, God appears to Jacob in a vision and promises Jacob that he will make him into a great nation and bring his descendants back to Canaan (the promised land) from Egypt.

- * Jacob, Joseph's father, meets Pharaoh (c. 1875 BC).

* Jacob (Israel) settles in Goshen. The Israelites gain possessions, are fruitful, and multiply.

- Jacob (Israel) blesses Joseph's sons (Manasseh and Ephraim) and gives them status as tribes of Israel instead of their father. Jacob says his last words to the rest of his sons, and dies at the age of 147. He is buried with Abraham, Sarah, and Isaac in the cave of the field at Machpelah, near Mamre (c. 1859 bc).

- ✳ After Jacob's death, Joseph tells them that what they intended for evil, God meant for good in order to preserve His people.

Joseph dies when he is 110 years old. His final request is that his bones be carried to Canaan when God delivers them from Egypt.

During the Exodus, Moses takes the bones of Joseph with him. They are buried in Shechem in the Promised Land of Canaan.
