

Is it heresy for a Christian to be tolerant of the LGBT Movement?

Heresy is teaching that which is contrary to the truth. Churches should teach that sex outside of the covenant of marriage is forbidden (Ex 20:14).

Churches may welcome unrepentant sexual sinners (Ge 13:13, Ex 20:14, Jas 4:8) whether heterosexual Lev 20:10–12 or homosexual (Le 20:10,13) ; but, they should not call them Christians (1 Pe 2:5).

Habitual sinners must be warned that they are not saved and they will not inherit the kingdom of God (1 Co 6:9-10).

When a Christian sins and will not repent, church discipline is in order as outlined in Matthew chapter 18 verses 15–20.

Whereas compromised churches (2 Thess 2:3) are part of the great harlot of the Book of Revelation (Re 17:1–18); the true church is salt (Mt 5:13) and light (vv. 14–16) seeking Jesus' interests and remaining true to him (Phil 2:20).

God's truth must be shared with gentleness and respect (1 Pe 3:15-16). The Lord will forgive any sin committed because he died for all sin (Ro 5:8). The Holy Spirit works to regenerate the sinner (Jn 16:8–11). If one continues to sin against the Holy Spirit, there is no forgiveness for him (Mt 12:31, 32).
